Phenomenal level of care. Went in for a re-cementing of a crown and check/up cleaning. Hygienist (who's name I sadly don't recall other wise I would mention) provided unparalleled care, and was so thorough with the examination that she went so far as to use a camera to detect a significant cavity obscured completely by an existing gold crown, that would have surely deteriorated and gone untreated until culminating in a much more dire situation if not detected. Dr. Lehman is working with me to resolve this and other necessary work all at the same time in one convenient appointment to minimize discomfort, cost and time. I would highly recommend this practice to any and all.

I am always happy with the professionalism, punctuality, and quality of treatment at at Dental Arts. If I am ever asked to suggest a dentist, I recommend them. My only comment for improvement is that my cleaning felt a little bit "harsher" than normal. This may be due to the condition of my teeth, however I still wanted to mention it.

It is like entering the ante-chamber to heaven -- you know, the waiting room -- when one gets there. Even the fish look contented. Oh wait, I did see one fish who looked grumpy. Poor fish don't get coffee. If they were a book or a movie, I would give them 5 stars.

I had a great visit. I was very happy to be welcomed as a return patient, as I changed jobs and had not been to Dental Arts Manhattan since maybe 2011. I'm about to make a copy of the business card and send it to a colleague right now. Did I mention I had a great visit?

Went in for a cleaning. The front desk ladies are always so helpful and pleasant. The dental hygienist, Anabel Urena, on the other hand was quite moody and expressed an unpleasant attitude - almost as if she did not want to perform her job at all! She then proceeded to lie to the dentist in front of me stating that I had said I refused a treatment when in fact she had never offered it and even said she would allow the dentist to make the call on whether or not I needed it. Very rude of her to make a false statement and then with an attitude, too! Found her demeanor quite unprofessional especially when my experience at this practice has been overall a positive one! I'd recommend getting a new hygienist if you're placed with Ms. Urena.

It was raining excessively, the ladies up front we're welcoming signed me in and provided napkins for me to dry and wait comfortably. The wait was less than 5 min, usual. Went to have my checkup and cleaning towards the back, the staff offered a closet for my things (I had been shopping). The rooms are large / comfortable / clean. Dental hygienist did a superb job with the cleaning and answered concerns I had. Dr. Lehman can in an did his checkup. I may have to get a cavity filled, which I knew but it's not there quite yet. Doc said we'll keep an eye on it and I scheduled my next appt. 6minyhs down the road. I very much enjoys this office for not rushing game people through, taking time for all their concerns and providing easy solutions. Also great to know when I do have the cavity filled, they have the right stuff to get me through it "hehe".

My name is Bridget Bernhart and have chosen to work with Dr. Charmain Ip at Dental Arts Manhattan after a most comprehensive and calming consultation with her and the owner of the practice, Dr. Lehman, had introduced himself as I was getting the info for my next visit after seeing Dr. Ip. I was struck how pleasant and real everyone was at their office and left with a VERY good feeling inside. I know I want to work with them for a continuous procedure I will be taking on and feel 100% confident that I am in the right hands. Today I went back for preliminary cleaning, x-rays and impressions to get started on my journey toward the nice teeth my parents gave me in the first place. I HIGHLY RECOMMEND DENTAL ARTS MANHATTAN. The staff was incredibly friendly and professional -- certainly a pleasant experience. Only thing I'd note (and it wasn't a big deal at all) was that the X-ray equipment that went into my mouth was kind of rusty, and given it's wedged in there pretty awkwardly it tasted pretty bad. The technician himself was great though, very nice.

I recently moved to New York City, and was having trouble finding a dentist since there are so many options and I didn't know anyone in my area to recommend a dentist. Going to Dental Arts Manhattan was the best decision I could have made. Everyone there is so incredibly friendly, personal, and professional. I felt like a person, not just a number (which I've learned can be a side effect of living in such a big city). From the moment I walked in the door, I felt welcomed and comforted, from the reception desk and every person I interacted with until the moment I left. Thank you Dental Arts Manhattan for such a positive experience!

★☆☆☆☆ by Stephen Ellwood on 2016-12-15

I was in on Monday for a filling - after being told 3x times that I need it and then don't need it - and then I asked about teeth whitening and was told the lowest price that could be offered was $400. I did in fact take my business elsewhere and after having been a patient for 15 years and am considering taking my dental care elsewhere. The Dr input has been inconsistent lately and as for teeth whitening - it is an extremely competitive landscape. This seems insulting especially after taking time out of my day to come in and then be told that I do not need a filling...

I initially made an appointment with Dr Ip, but she was out of the office so I spoke with Dr Lehman. I started to have excruciating pain the night before, and seemingly it was because of the infection around the root canal that was done 6 years ago when I was in Michigan. I am about to go on a month long trip to Asia in a couple of days and I was not sure if I could start any real treatment. I just needed the pain to go away for awhile. Dr. Lehman explained several options including extracting the teeth, which was very stressful situation to deal with couple of days before a trip abroad. Dr. Lehman was really attentive and understanding. He is surely a great doctor.

Dr. Lehman is a triple-threat dentist: thorough, caring, and funny. He takes time to explain procedures and to answer questions. The same can be said for Susie (dental assistant) and Anabel (dental hygienist), and both offer helpful oral care instructions. Gloria (front desk) kindly answers my insurance and billing questions. I leave the office knowing I have received exceptional care, and I appreciate the follow-up call a day after my appointment to ensure all is well.

Review for Charmaine Ip

Billing was incorrect, because submitted quote for my retainer to insurance incorrectly. They rectified it in a timely manner but it was still an inconvenience. I felt like I was also being coerced into getting a more expensive model than I needed - I'd originally been in there to get fillings which another dentist told me a didn't need and then they tried to sell me the retainer instead. Just a bundle of confusion and a waste of money, and I ended up being overcharged for something my insurance was supposed to cover.

I have had the same dental hygienist there for years, Kate I think, and she's always been fantastic. Yesterday the hygienist (Lena maybe) seemed completely clueless. It was not a good experience. My teeth did not get a full cleaning, it took a long time, and was not comfortable. She didn't offer a break between the cleaning, polishing, etc. Dr Lehman mentioned she was on a working interview - I wouldn't hire her. I met Dr. Ip for the first time who seemed great.

She was extremely thorough, gentle, and provided a lot of great education about dental care that I did not know. The last dentist I saw here told me I needed fillings, he wasn't available to see this time so I was reassigned another dentist. This one told me I didn't actually need the fillings but told me I needed a night guard. I ended up getting a new retainer instead since it does the similar job. Long and short of it is they're always trying to sell you something. The bill was submitted correctly to insurance for double the price and I had to call and have it corrected. I honestly don't know if I'll be back.

Not only does she clean my teeth well and without pain and a need for gas, she gets it done in record time with such deft skill and relaxing conversation as to make me always ask: is that it? Dr. Lehman saved my weekend in NYC! I had a bonded tooth break while on vacation in NYC, and by luck called Dr. Lehman's office. He and his staff were wonderful, very considerate, and quickly squeezed me in for an emergency fix. If I lived in NYC Dr. Lehman would be my dentist for sure!!

Dr. Lehman is honest and will not recommend a course of action unless it is something he would recommend for himself or a family member.

Dental Arts is the very best. Personable, knowledgeable, and very beautiful -- and that's just writing about the reception staff. Once past the famous white door, one is wafted almost effortlessly into a near nirvana experience. It's like that marijuana joint that I never smoked but inhaled once. The doctors and staff are among the top .01% of the loveliest people in the world, outside and probably inside as well. Root canal may often require a bit of, well, zen to name one thing, but what is life without the occasional poke at one's body? Did I mention that I like Dental Arts?

there is a reason i've chosen Kevin Lehman as my dentist. Given insurance weirdness I've tried a few and Dr. Lehman is the best. Could you find better? perhaps. Its a little like being married-could you have found a more perfect partner. Of course there is one out there, but the likelihood of actually encountering that person is slim to none. Is there a perfect dentist? What on earth would that actually mean? This is close enough for me.

Dental Arts provides what must be some of the best mouth care in NYC. Have you ever been to a doctor, let alone a dentist, who calls and asks if you can arrive earlier for an appointment because they're running ahead of schedule? My entire family are patients, as well as not a few friends, and we all agree, Dr. Lehman and the others are top notch. To a person they are skilled, knowledgeable, dedicated. Lehman is not only a great doctor, but also an amazing technician. He himself mans the software for designing crowns, and 3D-prints them out right there in the office during your visit, if that intervention is necessary. We have been attending the practice for ten years and have absolutely no criticism, only praise. If you're looking for a dentist, run, don't walk, to Dental Arts on 14th St. near 7th Ave.

I especially liked the reception yesterday, when it appeared at first that I was either: (1.) the 10,000th customer, or (2.) would have to run a gauntlet. Turned out photog was there to take photos for their web site, or whatever, and I showed up very like the usual deer jumping out right in front of your car. Anyway, whether it be lights, camera, running the gauntlet -- any of them work(ed) for me also since I hadn't had coffee yet. And the quality of the service! Unlike many places that are mostly or just initial flash, the reception I got was nothing compared to the great work they do consistently afterwards. Did I mention that I think they are very good?

The woman that did my cleaning needs to work on her bedside manner. She was impatient and made me feel like she was uncovering explosives and minefields inside my teeth-not what you do in the dentist office. Absolutely the worst to retain any sort of client comfortableness. I also was not told upfront of the costs on each of the procedures they were telling me I need. To be clear, you are recommending these and I will be going elsewhere to get second opinions and service due to the fact I believe I was taken advantage out of and all they really wanted was more $$$.

I've been here three times--the first was for a long overdue cleaning and the second two were for fillings. Dr. Lehman and his associates were fantastic! This is probably the best dentist I've had in the past 10 years. Everyone was nice, professional and answered all my questions. I also didn't have to wait long to get appointments, which is great.

I especially love the dental assistant, Caitlyn, at Dental Arts. She is knowledgeable, kind, funny, and skilled. There are a lot of serious procedures I need to have done, and it would have been a devastating experience had it not been for Caitlyn who offered kind counsel and a concrete plan. In addition, the offices are clean, inviting and well managed by the efficient front staff.

Dr. Butensky went WAY above and beyond to make my teeth look amazing. What was going to be a routine filling of a chip in my tooth, resulted in giving me a whole new smile. We went over our appt time, but instead of rushing to complete on time, he reworked the schedule so he could take his time and do a perfect job. I just switched to the practice and am so happy I did. I think the people at Dental Arts should all appear in the next Hollywood blockbuster movie, DENTIST THE MOVIE. Dental Arts Manhattan is far better and more interesting than the current offerings on television, which I understand have titles like NAKED AND STUPID and ANCIENT WEIRDOS. Dental Arts has informed, attractive, and super-competent personnel. I recommend them without reservation.

Review for Kevin Lehman

I found Dental Arts thru a dental insurance plan. Dental Arts was the nearest to where I lived. I was very happy with Dental Arts, but after a few years circumstances changed which included a different insurer and so I switched to a dentist listed with that plan. A couple of instances of crowns falling off convinced me that I needed to find a different dentist. The new insurance was a two tiered listing, and I was delighted to find that Dental Arts was now listed, albeit in the more expensive tier. It was a no brainer to switch back to a dentist whose work I had been very happy with, and I continue to be very happy with.

The woman who cleans my teeth is outstanding. I have been going to dental arts when they first opened on Fourth Ave hoe many years ago. Dr Duka amazing. His replacement Dr Lehman seems like a good and competent replacement. In contrast the worst experience in my life at a medical office was Dr Andrew Fagelman's receptionist office manager coming out from behind a long closed off reception desk to continue violating my patient rights. She provoked me to start filming when I couldn't get help. ps <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dh9TedhfthE&sns=em> please help go viral to shame MD, my attacker, NYPD, IAB, Cy Vance and ADAs involved thank you. <https://vine.co/v/M3A9b3ehni0> Vid 4 second highlights Vine

Review for Katelyn Hernandez

I've always been a little nervous going to the dentist for check ups and other procedures but not anymore. My appointment with Katelyn was great! I hadn't been to the dentist in quite a while and was feeling guilty about it, but Katelyn helped me feel at ease and assured me I was in the right hands. She has amazing bedside manner, a super cheerful personality and was extremely thorough in explaining everything. Dr. Lehman was equally as kind and reassuring. I received some troubling news after Dr. Lehman examined my teeth, so I know I have some major dental work ahead of me, but I feel completely comfortable coming back to Dr. Lehman and Katelyn - I know they're going to take good care of me!

Phenomenal level of care. Went in for a re-cementing of a crown and check/up cleaning. Hygienist (who's name I sadly don't recall other wise I would mention) provided unparalleled care, and was so thorough with the examination that she went so far as to use a camera to detect a significant cavity obscured completely by an existing gold crown, that would have surely deteriorated and gone untreated until culminating in a much more dire situation if not detected. Dr. Lehman is working with me to resolve this and other necessary work all at the same time in one convenient appointment to minimize discomfort, cost and time. I would highly recommend this practice to any and all.

Got to admit that I'm not that original because I'm one of the many who hates going to the dentist. I hate it. Dr. Lehman and everybody there are the best!

I am always happy with the professionalism, punctuality, and quality of treatment at at Dental Arts. If I am ever asked to suggest a dentist, I recommend them. My only comment for improvement is that my cleaning felt a little bit "harsher" than normal. This may be due to the condition of my teeth, however I still wanted to mention it.

What a lovely group of people. Not just lovely, but so excellent at what they do that I can only highly recommend them. It is like entering the ante-chamber to heaven -- you know, the waiting room -- when one gets there. Even the fish look contented. Oh wait, I did see one fish who looked grumpy. Poor fish don't get coffee. If they were a book or a movie, I would give them 5 stars.

I am very happy with Dental Arts Manhattan. I am not a great patient due to lots of unfounded anxiety. Dr. Lehman and his team are aware and really go out there way to make me comfortable. The last visit I needed a crown and the whole process was almost pleasant. It was so nice visiting with the team that time flew by and I didn't get a chance to panic. On top of that my crown is beautiful. I highly recommend this office to everyone!

Went in for a cleaning. The front desk ladies are always so helpful and pleasant. The dental hygienist, Anabel Urena, on the other hand was quite moody and expressed an unpleasant attitude - almost as if she did not want to perform her job at all! She then proceeded to lie to the dentist in front of me stating that I had said I refused a treatment when in fact she had never offered it and even said she would allow the dentist to make the call on whether or not I needed it. Very rude of her to make a false statement and then with an attitude, too! Found her demeanor quite unprofessional especially when my experience at this practice has been overall a positive one! I'd recommend getting a new hygienist if you're placed with Ms. Urena.

It was raining excessively, the ladies up front we're welcoming signed me in and provided napkins for me to dry and wait comfortably. The wait was less than 5 min, usual. Went to have my checkup and cleaning towards the back, the staff offered a closet for my things (I had been shopping). The rooms are large / comfortable / clean. Dental hygienist did a superb job with the cleaning and answered concerns I had. Dr. Lehman can in an did his checkup. I may have to get a cavity filled, which I knew but it's not there quite yet. Doc said we'll keep an eye on it and I scheduled my next appt. 6minyhs down the road. I very much enjoys this office for not rushing game people through, taking time for all their concerns and providing easy solutions. Also great to know when I do have the cavity filled, they have the right stuff to get me through it "hehe".

My name is Bridget Bernhart and have chosen to work with Dr. Charmain Ip at Dental Arts Manhattan after a most comprehensive and calming consultation with her and the owner of the practice, Dr. Lehman, had introduced himself as I was getting the info for my next visit after seeing Dr. Ip. I was struck how pleasant and real everyone was at their office and left with a VERY good feeling inside. I know I want to work with them for a continuous procedure I will be taking on and feel 100% confident that I am in the right hands. Today I went back for preliminary cleaning, x-rays and impressions to get started on my journey toward the nice teeth my parents gave me in the first place. I HIGHLY RECOMMEND DENTAL ARTS MANHATTAN. The staff was incredibly friendly and professional -- certainly a pleasant experience. Only thing I'd note (and it wasn't a big deal at all) was that the X-ray equipment that went into my mouth was kind of rusty, and given it's wedged in there pretty awkwardly it tasted pretty bad. The technician himself was great though, very nice.

I recently moved to New York City, and was having trouble finding a dentist since there are so many options and I didn't know anyone in my area to recommend a dentist. Going to Dental Arts Manhattan was the best decision I could have made. Everyone there is so incredibly friendly, personal, and professional. I felt like a person, not just a number (which I've learned can be a side effect of living in such a big city). From the moment I walked in the door, I felt welcomed and comforted, from the reception desk and every person I interacted with until the moment I left. Thank you Dental Arts Manhattan for such a positive experience!

★☆☆☆☆ by Stephen Ellwood on 2016-12-15

I was in on Monday for a filling - after being told 3x times that I need it and then don't need it - and then I asked about teeth whitening and was told the lowest price that could be offered was $400. I did in fact take my business elsewhere and after having been a patient for 15 years and am considering taking my dental care elsewhere. The Dr input has been inconsistent lately and as for teeth whitening - it is an extremely competitive landscape. This seems insulting especially after taking time out of my day to come in and then be told that I do not need a filling...

I initially made an appointment with Dr Ip, but she was out of the office so I spoke with Dr Lehman. I started to have excruciating pain the night before, and seemingly it was because of the infection around the root canal that was done 6 years ago when I was in Michigan. I am about to go on a month long trip to Asia in a couple of days and I was not sure if I could start any real treatment. I just needed the pain to go away for awhile. Dr. Lehman explained several options including extracting the teeth, which was very stressful situation to deal with couple of days before a trip abroad. Dr. Lehman was really attentive and understanding. He is surely a great doctor.

Dr. Lehman is a triple-threat dentist: thorough, caring, and funny. He takes time to explain procedures and to answer questions. The same can be said for Susie (dental assistant) and Anabel (dental hygienist), and both offer helpful oral care instructions. Gloria (front desk) kindly answers my insurance and billing questions. I leave the office knowing I have received exceptional care, and I appreciate the follow-up call a day after my appointment to ensure all is well.

Review for Charmaine Ip

Billing was incorrect, because submitted quote for my retainer to insurance incorrectly. They rectified it in a timely manner but it was still an inconvenience. I felt like I was also being coerced into getting a more expensive model than I needed - I'd originally been in there to get fillings which another dentist told me a didn't need and then they tried to sell me the retainer instead. Just a bundle of confusion and a waste of money, and I ended up being overcharged for something my insurance was supposed to cover.

When did you stop taking X-rays at the semi-annual checkup? I thought my insurance paid for two checkups with X-rays a year. I only saw Dr. Lehman for a perfunctory look at my teeth. Good cleaning.

My visit is always excellent. Dr. Lehman is a genius and so easeful. It turns out that the endodontist he referred me to gave me several tests to determine that in fact I don't need a root canal. Dr. Lehman's judgment was cautious and merited a second opinion. Michael Carroll

I have had the same dental hygienist there for years, Kate I think, and she's always been fantastic. Yesterday the hygienist (Lena maybe) seemed completely clueless. It was not a good experience. My teeth did not get a full cleaning, it took a long time, and was not comfortable. She didn't offer a break between the cleaning, polishing, etc. Dr Lehman mentioned she was on a working interview - I wouldn't hire her. I met Dr. Ip for the first time who seemed great.

I had a very positive experience at Dr. Lehman's office for my dental cleaning. I had not been to a dentist in over 3 years and Caitlin, my hygienist, was completely supportive and non-judgmental! She was extremely thorough, gentle, and provided a lot of great education about dental care that I did not know. The waiting room and dental rooms were very relaxing, clean, great magazines to read, and the administrative staff was very professional. Caitlin was on time for the appointment. Overall, very positive experience, would highly recommend this office.

Review for Kevin Lehman

The last dentist I saw here told me I needed fillings, he wasn't available to see this time so I was reassigned another dentist. This one told me I didn't actually need the fillings but told me I needed a night guard. I ended up getting a new retainer instead since it does the similar job. Long and short of it is they're always trying to sell you something. The bill was submitted correctly to insurance for double the price and I had to call and have it corrected. I honestly don't know if I'll be back.

Not only does she clean my teeth well and without pain and a need for gas, she gets it done in record time with such deft skill and relaxing conversation as to make me always ask: is that it? Dr. Lehman is warm and caring and astute about the care and health of your teeth. His hygienist Anabel is well trained and has a gentle touch. They make a great team. Dr. Lehman is honest and will not recommend a course of action unless it is something he would recommend for himself or a family member.

Dental Arts is the very best. Personable, knowledgeable, and very beautiful -- and that's just writing about the reception staff. Once past the famous white door, one is wafted almost effortlessly into a near nirvana experience. It's like that marijuana joint that I never smoked but inhaled once. The doctors and staff are among the top .01% of the loveliest people in the world, outside and probably inside as well. Root canal may often require a bit of, well, zen to name one thing, but what is life without the occasional poke at one's body? Did I mention that I like Dental Arts?

there is a reason i've chosen Kevin Lehman as my dentist. Given insurance weirdness I've tried a few and Dr. Lehman is the best. Could you find better? perhaps. Its a little like being married-could you have found a more perfect partner. Of course there is one out there, but the likelihood of actually encountering that person is slim to none. Is there a perfect dentist? What on earth would that actually mean? This is close enough for me.

Dental Arts provides what must be some of the best mouth care in NYC. Have you ever been to a doctor, let alone a dentist, who calls and asks if you can arrive earlier for an appointment because they're running ahead of schedule? My entire family are patients, as well as not a few friends, and we all agree, Dr. Lehman and the others are top notch. To a person they are skilled, knowledgeable, dedicated. Lehman is not only a great doctor, but also an amazing technician. He himself mans the software for designing crowns, and 3D-prints them out right there in the office during your visit, if that intervention is necessary. We have been attending the practice for ten years and have absolutely no criticism, only praise. If you're looking for a dentist, run, don't walk, to Dental Arts on 14th St. near 7th Ave.

I especially liked the reception yesterday, when it appeared at first that I was either: (1.) the 10,000th customer, or (2.) would have to run a gauntlet. Turned out photog was there to take photos for their web site, or whatever, and I showed up very like the usual deer jumping out right in front of your car. Anyway, whether it be lights, camera, running the gauntlet -- any of them work(ed) for me also since I hadn't had coffee yet. And the quality of the service! Unlike many places that are mostly or just initial flash, the reception I got was nothing compared to the great work they do consistently afterwards. Did I mention that I think they are very good?

I love the hygienist but the new dentist is too rough. Held my mouth open too long, not enough breaks, was not sensitive to my being uncomfortable and asking when he would be done. I am a long time patient of Dr. Duka and miss him being my dentist.

The woman that did my cleaning needs to work on her bedside manner. She was impatient and made me feel like she was uncovering explosives and minefields inside my teeth-not what you do in the dentist office. Absolutely the worst to retain any sort of client comfortableness. I also was not told upfront of the costs on each of the procedures they were telling me I need. To be clear, you are recommending these and I will be going elsewhere to get second opinions and service due to the fact I believe I was taken advantage out of and all they really wanted was more $$$.

I feel like I'm spending time with friends as opposed to coming in for a dental check or procedure. You guys are great! The only bad thing to come out of this appointment is that I don't get to come back until 6 months from now ;)

I especially love the dental assistant, Caitlyn, at Dental Arts. She is knowledgable, kind, funny, and skilled. There are a lot of serious procedures I need to have done, and it would have been a devastating experience had it not been for Caitlyn who offered kind counsel and a concrete plan. In addition, the offices are clean, inviting and well managed by the efficient front staff.

Dr. Butensky went WAY above and beyond to make my teeth look amazing. What was going to be a routine filling of a chip in my tooth, resulted in giving me a whole new smile. We went over our appt time, but instead of rushing to complete on time, he reworked the schedule so he could take his time and do a perfect job. I just switched to the practice and am so happy I did. I think the people at Dental Arts should all appear in the next Hollywood blockbuster movie, DENTIST THE MOVIE. Dental Arts Manhattan is far better and more interesting than the current offerings on television, which I understand have titles like NAKED AND STUPID and ANCIENT WEIRDOS. Dental Arts has informed, attractive, and super-competent personnel. I recommend them without reservation.

Review for Kevin Lehman

I found Dental Arts thru a dental insurance plan. Dental Arts was the nearest to where I lived. I was very happy with Dental Arts, but after a few years circumstances changed which included a different insurer and so I switched to a dentist listed with that plan. A couple of instances of crowns falling off convinced me that I needed to find a different dentist. The new insurance was a two tiered listing, and I was delighted to find that Dental Arts was now listed, albeit in the more expensive tier. It was a no brainer to switch back to a dentist whose work I had been very happy with, and I continue to be very happy with.

I was extremely impressed with Dental Arts Manhattan. There is a great sense of hospitality and professionalism displayed by the staff. They were very pleasant and welcoming. The Dentist was very thorough and informative. The office is clean, they provide great attention to questions that may arise. I wholeheartedly will recommend their services to others. They pride themselves on being professional, and as humanly perfect as possible. Be punctual and they will provide the services expected. I received the greatest cleaning ever, and look forward to having this team perform upcoming dental services.

The woman who cleans my teeth is outstanding. I have been going to dental arts when they first opened on Fourth Ave hoe many years ago. Dr Duka amazing. His replacement Dr Lehman seems like a good and competent replacement. In contrast the worst experience in my life at a medical office was Dr Andrew Fagelman's receptionist office manager coming out from behind a long closed off reception desk to continue violating my patient rights. She provoked me to start filming when I couldn't get help. ps <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dh9TedhfthE&sns=em> please help go viral to shame MD, my attacker, NYPD, IAB, Cy Vance and ADAs involved thank you. <https://vine.co/v/M3A9b3ehni0> Vid 4 second highlights Vine

I've always been a little nervous going to the dentist for check ups and other procedures but not anymore. My appointment with Katelyn was great! I hadn't been to the dentist in quite a while and was feeling guilty about it, but Katelyn helped me feel at ease and assured me I was in the right hands. She has amazing bedside manner, a super cheerful personality and was extremely thorough in explaining everything. Dr. Lehman was equally as kind and reassuring. I received some troubling news after Dr. Lehman examined my teeth, so I know I have some major dental work ahead of me, but I feel completely comfortable coming back to Dr. Lehman and Katelyn - I know they're going to take good care of me!

I hate going to the dentist! But I enjoy going to Dental Arts! The staff are very friendly and attentive. Dr Lehman is top notch! I highly recommend Dental Arts Manhattan!

Even though I had some substantial work done I'm glad Dr. Lehman was there to do it.

Dr. Lehman has taken the Dental Arts brand and practice into its next logical phase: Competence and great patient care. I am happy for his succession to new owner and caregiver.

Dr. Lehman is the first dentist that I look forward to visiting. His work is always stellar and his chair-side manner a pleasure.

Review for Katelyn Hernandez

I have been a patient at this office for a couple of years now, and have had a great experience from day one. They are warm, caring people with a very attentive and talented staff! I would recommend them to anyone. I am an orthodontist, and as a dental professional myself I have a very clear concept about what constitutes quality care. Drs. Lehman and Sudeck are wonderful!!
